NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. Walter Haviland, of Brooklyn, has rented the house on Ridgewood avenue, formerly owned by Mr. Nich and will move in the first of April.

Gospel Union Temperance Meeting on Sunday afternoon 4 o'clock in the lecture room of the Baptist church. Last Sunday Rev. G. W. Duffield gave some interesting reminiscences of old time temperance work in Bloomfield.

The Annual School Meeting for the election of Trustees was held at the Central School House on Tuesday evening. Messrs. Thos. Oakes and Wm. A. Baldwin were unanimously re-elected for the full term of three years, and Mr. Samuel Belmont for the uncompleted term of one year.

A service was given Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. Albert Field, Belleville avenue, by the young people of the Methodist Church in honor of Rev. Mr. Burt, who goes on a mission to Italy in a few days. About sixty were present, and the evening was passed with music and literary exercises.

On Monday night burglars broke into the store at the Centre, entering through a cellar window, and stole about $150 worth of fancy goods. The carpenter shop of Theodore Cadmus, opposite the depot, was also broken into for the third time, and about $75 worth of tools were stolen. As usual no clue has been found of the thieves.

"Our Girls," the Rev. Dr. Everett's lecture at the Park M. E. church Friday evening of next week, will no doubt be very largely attended. Not only because it is free, but because the lecturer has the reputation of being one of the most brilliant speakers on the American platform. As he has crowded the N. Y. Academy of Music, he surely will have all to speak to that the church will accommodate. An advertisement appears in another column.

—Died in Bloomfield, N. J., Mrs. Helen Lunan, aged 63 years. Mrs. Lunan was born in the town of Dunbar, Scotland, and came to this country forty-five years ago. She became a believer in Christ in early life, and united with the Presbyterian church, under the teachings of which she had been brought up. Owing to a change in her religious views after she came to America, she united with the church of the Disciples. She possessed a clear and well-balanced mind, and a heart of warm and ardent affection. The will of God was her constant study, and her receptive mind and heart were well stored with its great lessons. She held the truths of that Word with intelligent firmness, nor allowed other authority in matters of faith and practice. She bore the vicissitudes and bereavements of her long life with true Christian dignity and unflinching resignation. During the protracted illness, which closed her mortal career, her mind was clear and active, and her spirit bright and cheerful. Firm in her faith in Christ, and her hope of immortal bliss, she entered into the joys of her eternal rest. She leaves her two bereaved and mourning daughters and her grand-children the sweet fragrance of a pure life of faith and love, till they meet her in glory.

—I found me through the columns of your valuable paper to appeal to an appreciative public to contribute to a most worthy charity, that of supplying a small amount of religious literature for the coming year, also a quantity of books, suitable for Sunday services at the Essex Unitarian. Contributions, however small, can be handed to Mr. Geo. W. Cook or thankfully received by

J. S. At a later date I shall be happy to give you a brief account of that institution and the good work of reform being accomplished there.

Township Committee.

The first regular meeting of the newly elected Township Committee was held on Wednesday evening, the only change in the membership being the presence of Mr. Frank S. Benson, who succeeds Mr. Corby as the representative from Glen Ridge.

The organization was quickly perfected by the election of Mr. Wm. A. Baldwin as Chairman.

The constables filed their bonds and Mr. Phineas J. Ward qualified as a Commissioner of Appeals.

The Committee re-appointed the Pound Masters of last year, they also appointed Dr. Wm. H. White, Township Physician, and re-elected Halsey M. Barrett, Township Counsel.

A Resolution was adopted that all money received from arrears of taxes be applied to the payment of the account due the Gas company, and to the payment of the indebtedness of the township amounting to $1,350.

A Resolution was also adopted that the chairman of each committee having the disbursement of public money report at the first regular meeting of each month all payments made by him, together with the vouchers for such payments.

The Fire Committee were instructed to report upon the matter of securing 500 feet of hose and a new jumper for Excelsior Hose Co., No. 3.

The Truck Company and several Hose Co's. tendered their services for the ensuing year, and their services were accepted.

Mr. Andrew J. Marsh was then re-appointed as Chief Engineer of the Fire Department.

Several applications for stone sidewalks were received and referred to the Sidewalk Committee.

Orders were drawn to pay the fees of the election officers and some other routine business was transacted.

The regular meetings are to be held on the first and third Wednesday of each month, being the same evenings as last year.

Chairman Baldwin announced the standing Committees as follows:
Roads—Dodd and Oakes.
Crosswalks—Oakes and Dodd.
Public Grounds—Dailey and Benson.
Fire—Oakes and Benson.
Sidewalks—Dailey and Benson.
Gas—Benson and Dailey.
Water—Dodd and Dailey.
Poor—Dodd and Oakes.
Police—Benson and Dailey.
Auditing—Dailey and Oakes.

Death of Israel C. Ward.

On Thursday afternoon about five o'clock Mr. Israel C. Ward, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, died of pneumonia. He was eighty-two years of age and the illness which has terminated fatally began with a cold contracted on Friday of last week. We have but little opportunity at present for the extended notice which we should be glad to give. But we can at least say this, that our old townsman will be greatly missed. He was well known by all religious people and was for years a member and an Elder in the First Presbyterian Church. His gentle, peace-loving character and his genuine goodness endeared him to all who knew him and he will be sincerely lamented by many former recipients of his benevolence.

Fashion and Drink.

To The Citizen:
There is much less hard drinking in Bloomfield to-day than there was fifty years ago. Why? Because there are more laws on the subject? Not at all. It is no longer fashionable to get drunk. In fact among the better class of people it is considered to be not quite the thing to do in public, and deacons who wish to get full would now do it on the sly in stead of openly and above-board as they did in the good old times. Make it unfashionable to drink and the world will get thirsty, just as at present there is a strong tendency among women to adopt the costume of the Garden of Eden, albeit there is no law on the statute books compelling it.

To The Citizen:
Your report of the Republican Primary of last week is as correct as a newspaper report of spoken words can be. If the tone of the remarks could be given it would be perfect.

To me and to many of our citizens, there is one very significant and even sad fact that stares at us from that report. It is said that the Prohibitionists sent to the primary a request to the primary to nominate a certain class, or rather not to nominate a certain class of people for town offices. This request is published in another column of the paper and seems

The fact to which I refer is the intemperate zeal with which the primary, and especially some of its younger men, kicked this request out of doors. Mr. Barrett is quoted as calling it a threat and making a very fierce speech against it.

Now there was absolutely nothing in that request to call forth any such remarks nor anything that warranted the disrespect with which it was treated.

No it was not anything, in the character of the request that caused the outbreak, it was the fear of losing votes controlled by the liquor interest. Trucking to that interest was covered by the thin cloak of a refusal to attend to fully as good a class of citizens arrayed against it.

The way to political success may lie along this road, but he who travels it will find his shoes muddy at the goal.

"TEMPERANCE IN ALL THINGS."

A Great Time in Newark.

THE REEVE OF L. S. PLATT
Announce another one of their gigantic special sales, commencing Monday morning, March 22d, at 9 o'clock and continuing throughout the week, at which they offer a great stock of seasonable merchandise at cut prices thus enabling the public to lay in a supply at a saving from twenty to forty per cent. from city prices prevailing. It is well worth the journey to this veritable Hive of Industry, as the saving insured by purchasing at this popular house will easily repay the loss and time of the journey many times over. A the house is noted for the genuineness of its offerings, we can safely advise the people of Bloomfield and vicinity to make a shopping tour to the Beehive this coming week. The bargains offered are equally as good as those secured at their great January sale.

To the Public.

I am thankful for the sympathy I have received since my store was robbed, but dear public, a word in your ear if you please. I am going out of business and am selling off at a sacrifice. Now let your sympathy take a practical shape by coming and getting goods in the usual business way. My thanks to those who have already done so. Come all and see me before I go.

E. WILDE.

Montclair Memoranda.

The new Township Committee met and organized for the coming year on Saturday night. Mr. Thomas Russell was chosen Chairman and the new clerk, R. E. Van Gieson, was sworn in. The oaths of office of the other newly elected township officers were also administered. No business was done except to arrange the standing committees. Mr. Carey was made Chairman of the Finance Committee, W. S. Taylor of the Road Committee, A. E. Van Gieson of the Poor and Gas committees and James Owen of the Sidewalks and Law committees.

At the annual school meeting in District No. 8, on Monday evening, Dr. C. A. Marvin was re-elected a member of the Board of School Trustees, and J. R. Howard was elected to succeed Col. Fred H. Harris, who declined re-election.

The Rev. Jesse Gilbert, "the boy preacher," lectured in the Verona M. E. Church Tuesday evening, on the "Rock Upon Which People Split."

Neighborhood News.

SOUTH ORANGE.

The voters of Columbia School District, No. 28 gathered at the school house Wednesday evening, for the annual school meeting. Edward Self was chosen to preside, and Henry Lilly as secretary. The financial report showed total receipts, including balance remaining, $16,656.25; disbursements, $10,710.55; balance on hand, $9,945.70. The net bonded indebtedness was reported to be $3,000.

EAST ORANGE.

Considerable amusement has been created about this township by the items in New York papers detailing how officer James Healy or Kealy, was shot in the lung by a burglar whom he chased from Mulberry street to the Fourth Ward Schoolhouse, or nearly a mile. There is no foundation in fact whatever for the report. Officer Healy has not been shot, or shot at, and there has been no attempted burglary on Saturday night reported.

ELIZABETH.

The property of the delinquent taxpayers of Elizabeth was sold on Saturday for the taxes of 1882. The Singer Sewing Machine Factory was bought in by the City Treasurer for $11,500. The city, as the owner of the property under a title, has no right of possession until the expiration of two years from the day of sale, and must then take legal proceedings to get possession, so that it is no better off by reason of its action.

Congressman Lehlbach is manifesting a great interest in the welfare of his constituents, especially in business matters regulated by the tariff. He has been before the Morrison Committee several times, and his latest appearance was on Saturday, when he made a strong argument in favor of putting a moderate rate of duty on imported liquefied carbonic acid, which, by the Morrison Tariff bill, is allowed to remain on the free list. Mr. Lehlbach stated that the iron cylinders containing the acid are admitted to this country duty free, under the ruling of the Treasury Department, which admits "wrappers" of important goods without duty. He asked that a duty also be levied on such cylinders. He informed the committee that the only manufacturers of liquefied carbonic acid in the U. S. were Cooper & Co., chemists, of Newark. Mr. Lehlbach believes the duty on both bronze powders and pearl buttons will be increased to a higher rate, and that a duty will be levied on imported liquefied carbonic acid and iron cylinders in which that article is brought to this country.

How Public Lands are Stolen.

A recent visitor from Colorado gives an interesting account of how land is taken up and settled in that part of the country. He said that the works of the company which supplies the city of Denver with water are situated upon land obtained through titles issued upon fraudulent homestead entries. He said the company could not afford to buy scrip, which is necessary to locate any large blocks of public land, so they employed a number of the agents of the company to make fraudulent homestead entries. The way it was done was this: A toy house, two stories high, neatly painted, 16 inches by 24 and 30 inches in height, was made. It had a handle upon the ridge-pole of its roof. The would-be homesteader would take this house in one hand and a blanket over his arm. He would then proceed to a quarter section, set up his house and lie down by the side of it in his blanket and spend the night there. The next morning he would dig up the land for a few feet with a spade. After that he would go directly to the Register's office and make oath that he had taken up a certain quarter section of land, had erected a house two stories, 16 by 24, leaving it to be inferred that he meant feet instead of inches, that he had slept there and that he had made improvements upon the land. When the title was issued to him the house would be handed over to another homesteader to repeat this process on other quarter sections. In this way the company acquired a large block of land. The only justification of the Register's winking at this fraud was the fact that the land was desert land and would never have been taken up by a regular homesteader, and that while it was valuable for the water-works company it would not have been to any one else. The entire community understood the performance and seemed to regard it as a huge joke.

Ex-president Arthur's law partner, Mr. Ramsdell, Judge Hyer, of Albany, Legislator A. A. Drake, of Westfield; Rev. Dr. Ballard, of Ocean Grove; and many others are witnesses that Palmer's "Skin-Success" is a safe, sure, and speedy remedy for skin complaints of every name and degree of severity.

Rev. T. T. Everett, D.D.,

Private Secretary of Gov. Pattison, of Penn., will deliver his celebrated lecture on

"OUR GIRLS"

On the evening of

FRIDAY, MARCH 26,

at the Park M. E. Church.

Dr. Everett is acknowledged to be one of the most humorous and eloquent speakers before the American people of to-day.

The Brooklyn Eagle says: "The Bryant Literary Circle, made up of Brooklyn's most refined people, showed much wisdom in selecting the Rev. Dr. Everett to close their recent course of entertainments at the Academy of Music, a course in which such men as Dr. John Hall and Dr. Howard Crosby were prominent speakers." A voluntary basket collection will be taken up at the close.

All are cordially invited to be present.
